Memorandum

	Food poster idea	consent from some members
	Opening council meetings to GAP members	Emily Conn will create a directory of Sustainability Office members of note
		Food signage idea requires approval
		Barriers in implementing physical signage:
		- Strict regulation
		<ul> <li>Specific marketing guidelines</li> </ul>
		<ul> <li>Businesses need to be consulted</li> </ul>
		<ul> <li>Could be bad press for GAP if outlets lose business</li> </ul>
		<ul> <li>Organisation groups within UQ are overloaded at the moment; time frame for approval is indefinite</li> </ul>
		<ul> <li>Proposal must be drafted for the Sustainability Office first</li> </ul>
		Council agree that physical signage is ineffective
		New ideas:
		<ul> <li>Create cheap/easy recipes for students to take to campus; developed using healthy/sustainable living goals</li> </ul>
		<ul> <li>Weekly post relating to food consumption and sustainability; small lifestyle changes</li> </ul>
		- Cooking show video
		Noted that UQU has a tight budget; approval will be difficult to obtain for any project that could be perceived as losing money
		Council agreed to discuss informally and revisit at the next meeting
		Lachlan Green left meeting – 3:30pm
		Council agree meetings should be open to GAP members; we value transparency
		Council agree to publish the upcoming meeting agenda one week prior; GAP members who wish to contribute can register to attend the meeting; they will be sent the Zoom link privately
4.	Trivia Night	Event organisation – successful considering short
	Successes and failures	planning period; great question content; great
	Ways to improve	turnout considering how new our group is; voucher helpful in enticing participants
	How to increase	More time necessary to increase engagement;
	engagement	busy period of semester – potentially bad timing
		Council agree to plan events in advance; discuss fully planned event at council meeting prior to event
5.	Forum Vote to host online during	Council voted to host Forum online during - Sustainability Week (August)
	Sust. Week or wait for campus to reopen	Secretary will create document on GAP Google Drive for all ideas
	Next steps	End of June – Sustainability Office needs brief description of our events
		Council agree to revisit content suggestions at next

Memorandum

		meeting Flexible budget; approval can be obtained for anything needed
6.	Sustainability Week Alternative for Forum (if necessary) Event related to UN SDGs	Book club suggested – organise groups to - complete SDG Academy online modules together - Potentially launch during Sustainability Week
