

UQ REPAIR CAFÉ HOUSE RULES

- The work carried out in the Repair Café is performed free of charge on a voluntary basis by UQ Repair Café apprentice fixers.
- Visitors offering broken items for repair do so at their own risk. Repairs are not guaranteed.
- Experts making repairs offer no guarantee for the repairs carried out with their help and are not liable if objects that are repaired in the UQ Repair Café turn out not to work properly at home.
- Neither UQ, the UQU club Student are liable for any loss that may result from advice or instructions concerning repairs, for the loss of items handed over for repair, for indirect or consequential loss or for any other kind of loss resulting from work performed in the UQ Repair Café. The limitations set forth in these house rules shall not apply to claims declared justified on the basis of liability arising by virtue of applicable consumer protection legislation which cannot be lawfully superseded.
- Repair experts are entitled to refuse to repair items.
- Repair experts are not obliged to reassemble disassembled appliances that cannot be repaired.
- Visitors to the Repair Café are solely responsible for their items at all times and for tidy removal of items brought in that could not be repaired.
- To cut down on unnecessary waiting times during busy periods, a maximum of ONE broken item per person will be examined. The visitor will join the back of the queue if there is a second item for repair.
- Handheld items only
- Visiting minors (under 15) must be supervised at all times by an adult.
- Visitors to the Repair Café are not permitted to physically engage in any build or repair activity.
- Visitors to the Repair Café must
  - follow all directions given by UQ
  - must wear closed footwear at all times in the Space, and must at all times use all safety and protective gear required by UQ
- UQ may require you to leave the Space or withdraw your entry into the Space at any time for any reason, including if you breach these terms, and if so you must comply promptly.
