

Heron Island Research Station (HIRS) Register of Regulations

1. Objectives

- Identify relevant legislation, regulations and standards pertaining to The University of Queensland activities; and
- Maintain a Register of Regulations.

2. Scope

The scope of the Register of Regulations is limited to the following environmental areas:

- Solid and Hazardous Wastes;
- Environmental Noise;
- Air Quality;
- Energy;
- Water; and
- Land.

3. Preparation

The Property and Facilities Division, Environmental Services Section, is responsible for the preparation and maintenance of the Register of Regulations.

4. Custody

The Register of Regulations is held by Environmental Services, Property and Facilities Division. The register can be found in the following:

- Property and Facilities Division computer network under the {G:\!Operations\!Environment\Ems\Hirs} directory};

5. Reviews

The Register of Regulations shall be reviewed as follows:

- Environmental Services, Property and Facilities Division, is responsible for reviewing the register;
- The review process incorporates the Standards Australia Website and Update publications, and State Government Legislation Update Service. Items not covered by an update service are checked on an annual basis with relevant authorities and agencies, in the first half of each year, or as necessary.
